The NCPA Foundation is pleased to announce the latest in the very popular series of signed, limited-edition art prints created by pharmacist Larry Wamble. The 2009 print is a continuation of the city prints that commemorate NCPA Annual Convention cities featuring notable local landmarks.

PROCEEDS FROM THE SALES support the NCPA Foundation, a nonprofit charitable 501(c)(3) organization. Contributions are tax-deductible as a charitable donation to the extent permitted under federal tax law. The NCPA Foundation supports the growth and advancement of independent community pharmacy through low-interest educational loans and scholarships to pharmacy students in need, critical research and programs to improve the success of independent pharmacy, community service programs, and financial assistance to community pharmacy owners for their recovery in the event of disaster, accidents, illness, or adverse circumstances.
