National Community Pharmacists Association Foundation: The NCPA Foundation is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization established in 1953 to honor the previous incarnation of NCPA, the National Association of Retail Druggists (NARD) Executive Secretary John W. Dargavel. The NCPA Foundation supports the growth of independent community pharmacy through scholarships to NCPA student members, programs to improve the success of independent pharmacy and that enhance patient care, community service programs, and financial aid and resources to community pharmacy owners for their recovery in the event of disaster or other adverse circumstances. For more information, visit www.ncpafoundation.org. Contributions to the foundation are tax-deductible as charitable donations to the extent permitted under federal tax law.

National Community Pharmacists Association: NCPA represents the interests of America's community pharmacists, including the owners of more than 22,000 independent community pharmacies. Together they represent an $81.4 billion health care marketplace and employ more than 314,000 individuals on a full or part-time basis. To learn more, go to www.ncpanet.org.
