

Privacy Policy & Terms and Conditions

The NCPA Foundation respects the privacy of visitors to our Web site. To protect your online privacy, the NCPA Foundation has implemented the following policy that discloses the privacy practices for <https://www.ncpafoundation.org/>.

Information Collected - General

The NCPA Foundation is the sole owner of the information collected on our site. The NCPA Foundation, and its divisions, uses data collected to better serve independent community pharmacy; to improve our own web content; to process a user's request (i.e. registration, product purchase, subscription service); to respond to visitors' interests, needs and preferences; and to develop and market new products and services.

This information is not sold or distributed in any other manner that is not disclosed in this policy.

Information Collected From NCPA Foundation Registrants and Customers

To gain access to subscription/CE services on the NCPA Foundation Web site, users may be asked to register and provide some information. This information is submitted voluntarily. The NCPA Foundation asks users to provide information such as their name, company/pharmacy name, contact information, business phone/fax, and e-mail.

Information Collected From General Users

The NCPA Foundation does not collect any personal information from users browsing our Web site. Users to the public areas of the Web site browse anonymously. Only aggregate data (see Log Files) may be collected.

Log Files

We use IP addresses to analyze trends and track users' movements throughout our site. Aggregate data—such as the number of hits per page, what pages are visited—are also collected. Aggregate data are only used for internal and marketing purposes and do not provide any personally identifying information.

Surveys/Polls

From time-to-time, the NCPA Foundation will feature surveys and user polls on its Web site. Participation is voluntary. Information requested may include name, contact information, demographic information and survey/poll-related information. Such information will be used for improving the use of the NCPA Foundation's offerings.

Special Offers

The NCPA Foundation may send out information on our products, services or special offers. We offer the option not to receive these types of communications. See Opt-Out/Redress below.

Use of Cookies

Cookies are files that contain information created by a web server that can be stored on a user's hard disk for use either during a particular session ("per-session" cookie) or for future use ("persistent" cookie). Cookies are not used to disseminate significant information about users over the Internet or to analyze any information that users have knowingly or unknowingly provided. When a user registers, the system will ask whether the user approves of the attachment of a cookie. Users may instruct their Internet browsers to opt out of accepting a "persistent" cookie and rather accept only a "per-session" cookie, but will need to login each time they visit the site to enjoy the full benefits. If the user declines the attachment of any cookie, the user may not have access to the full benefits of the Web site.

Privacy Issues Regarding Links To Other Sites

The NCPA Foundation Web site contains links to other Web sites. The NCPA Foundation has no control over, and is not responsible for the privacy policies or content of such sites.

Opt-Out/Redress

Users who no longer wish to receive our newsletters or promotional materials may opt-out of receiving these communications by replying to the listed unsubscribe address or e-mail us directly at ncpaF@ncpanet.org.

Also, if any user suspects the NCPA Foundation has handled its personal information in a manner that does not comply with this privacy statement, please contact us by e-mailing to ncpaF@ncpanet.org or by calling 703-838-2653.
